8-WEEK JOURNAL

EAT LIKE TAMMY EDITION

PLAN | TRACK | PREP | MOVE | REFLECT

ONE STARCH PER MEAL NEVER TWO

Simple food. Clear portions. Real life.

24 pages - enough to guide you, not overwhelm you.

HOW THE 8 WEEKS WORK

The journal is deliberately simple. Plan once, tick the basics each day, and review once a week.

YOUR DAILY STRUCTURE

- 1 Breakfast - choose one option from the Eat Like Tammy plan.
- 2 Snack - optional, only if hungry or useful around training.
- 3 Lunch - protein + unlimited low-calorie veg + ONE starch if included.
- 4 Snack - optional.
- 5 Dinner - lean protein + unlimited low-calorie veg + ONE starch if included.
- 6 Water - aim for about 3 litres daily.

THE NON-NEGOTIABLE RULES

- Meat, chicken, mince, fish and butternut: weigh RAW before cooking.
- Pasta and oats: weigh DRY. Tuna: weigh DRAINED.
- Low-calorie non-starchy vegetables and salad are unlimited - do not weigh them.
- ONE starch per meal. Never combine two starches in the same meal.
- Treats: maximum TWO treat occasions per week.
- Hard training can change WHICH starch you use - it does not mean adding a second starch.

EAT LIKE TAMMY - PORTION GUIDE

STARTING POINT

MY STARTING POINT

Use only the measurements that feel useful. The journal is about habits, not obsessing over numbers.

PROGRESS PHOTO - OPTIONAL

If you take photos, use front / side / back in the same clothing, lighting and distance. Keep them private. Repeat the same setup at Week 8.

Where I saved them:

MY 8-WEEK COMMITMENT

Choose the behaviours you can actually repeat. Consistency wins.

I WILL AIM TO...

- ☐ Follow the Eat Like Tammy structure most of the time
- ☐ Keep to ONE starch per meal
- ☐ Use unlimited low-calorie vegetables instead of cutting food too hard
- ☐ Prepare food in a style that suits my week
- ☐ Aim for about 3 litres of water
- ☐ Move/train according to the program
- ☐ Use no more than two planned treat occasions per week
- ☐ Ask for help instead of quietly giving up

MY REASON FOR DOING THIS

ONE STARCH PER MEAL. NEVER TWO.

I do not need a perfect week. I need another good choice.

WEEK 1 - PLAN

Plan just enough to make the week easier.

THE HABITS I BUILT

- ☐ One starch per meal feels normal
- ☐ I understand my portions
- ☐ I use unlimited non-starchy veg to stay satisfied
- ☐ I know which prep style works for me
- ☐ I can enjoy planned treats without derailing the week
- ☐ I recover after an imperfect meal instead of giving up

WHAT I AM MOST PROUD OF

WHAT I AM TAKING WITH ME

The goal was never eight perfect weeks. The goal was to build a repeatable way of looking after yourself.

The biggest thing I learned about food:

The biggest thing I learned about myself:

The prep style that suits me best:

The habits I want to keep:

What I will do when life gets messy again:

ONE STARCH. REAL FOOD. SIMPLE PREP.

Keep the habits that worked. Keep going.
